Sprint Review Document Date: 19/09/23

Overview:

- Sprint Objective: Finish module and profile frontend page development, user story improvement, ethical and cyber security considerations, backend APIs, and data schema development, etc.
- Timeline:16/09/23 – 24/09/23
- Team Members:Xintao Chen, Haonan Tao, Murong Gu, Youcheng Zhang, Xuhai Wang

Milestones Achieved:

- Accomplished the comprehensive development of user frontend pages, elevating the user experience.
- Established backend services, paving the way for dynamic user interactions.
- Incorporated user feedback, refining the UI/UX.
- Delivered all set targets within the stipulated timeline.
- Established a streamlined feedback process, accelerating product enhancements.

Hurdles Encountered:

- UI had to be re-adjusted due to user feedback, shifting from our initial roadmap.
- Faced unexpected challenges during integrations, momentarily affecting our momentum.
- Performance optimization took longer than anticipated.
- Occasional communication delays within the team.
- Lack of expertise, need to spend extra time learning
- Delays in helping each other within the team.

Client Feedback:

- Change the corresponding module page name
- Double check the number of page load limits.
- The age group classification is further determined.
- Further, define the coach and age group design for the next sprint.
- Integration with the Redback team's client page.
- Give the deploy link to the client and collect the feedback at the next client meeting.

Wisdom Acquired:

- Regular Team Sync-ups: Instituting bi-weekly internal team meetings has been invaluable. This recurrent touchpoint has ensured that everyone remains aligned on priorities and can swiftly address any emerging challenges. This proactive approach has drastically minimized potential roadblocks.

- Supervisor Engagements: Weekly meetings with the supervisor have not only ensured that we maintain transparency in our operations but have also endowed us with timely guidance. This frequent cadence of reporting and mentorship has been instrumental in steering the project's trajectory in alignment with the broader organizational objectives.

- Sprint Client Conversations: Regular sprint review sessions with our clients have metamorphosed our approach. By actively seeking and integrating user feedback during these sessions, we've fostered a user-centric ethos, ensuring our product remains relevant and resonant to the end-user.

- Sustainable Incremental Development: Adopting a continuous incremental development model has made us more adaptive. This approach ensures that while we consistently enhance our product, we're also poised to pivot based on real-time feedback or market changes swiftly.

- Document Evolution: Ensuring that our documentation remains a living entity has been pivotal. By continuously updating it to mirror our latest development and strategic insights, we ensure all stakeholders, both internal and external, have a holistic, up-to-date view of the project. This dynamism guarantees smooth collaboration and bolsters project transparency.

Strategic Roadmap:

- Regular Team Meetings: Holding bi-weekly team sessions has been key for alignment. It helps address issues before they become significant roadblocks.
- Engaging Supervisors: Our weekly check-ins with the supervisor have ensured transparency and provided crucial feedback.
- Client Feedback: Regular sprint reviews with clients have shifted our approach to a more user-centric model.
- Incremental Development: Continuous incremental development ensures our product stays relevant and adaptable.
- Ongoing Documentation: Keeping our documentation up to date has been crucial for collaboration and transparency.

Reflection and Forecast: The past sprint was a mosaic of challenges met, lessons learned, and milestones achieved. The team's alchemy of dedication, collaboration, and adaptability has been our beacon. As we continue this trajectory, we pledge to be agile learners, transforming each challenge into a stepping stone for excellence. Here's to embracing the future with the wisdom of the past!

Upcoming Engagements:

Strategy Conclave: 2/10/23
Ensuing Actions: The Scrum Maestro will shepherd the initiation of brainstorming symposiums and spearhead the adoption of avant-garde CI/CD and deployment tools.
